Any use of such device will result in the Organising Committee taking disciplinary action against the offending person(s) in accordance with the concluding paragraph of Section 1 of the Rules of Golf (Etiquette). Primarily this would mean the player being prohibited from playing in the next competition organised by the RMGC and or the MGA and, if the offence is persistent or very disturbing to others, in a penalty of disqualification of the player being imposed under Rule 33-7. ROYAL MALTA GOLF CLUB

The Royal Malta Golf Club was founded in 1888 and moved to its current locality in 1904. The course offers 18 holes of golf in stunning, historical, landscaped grounds, which are maintained daily. Today at par 68, the course is a good challenge for the more experienced, without being unkind to the novice.

The apparent simplicity of the course is deceptive as it is narrow demanding accuracy off the tee and controlled approach shots as the greens are small and well bunkered. Depending on the season, there is not much water on the course but a few strategically placed water hazards lie in wait.
